Foreword

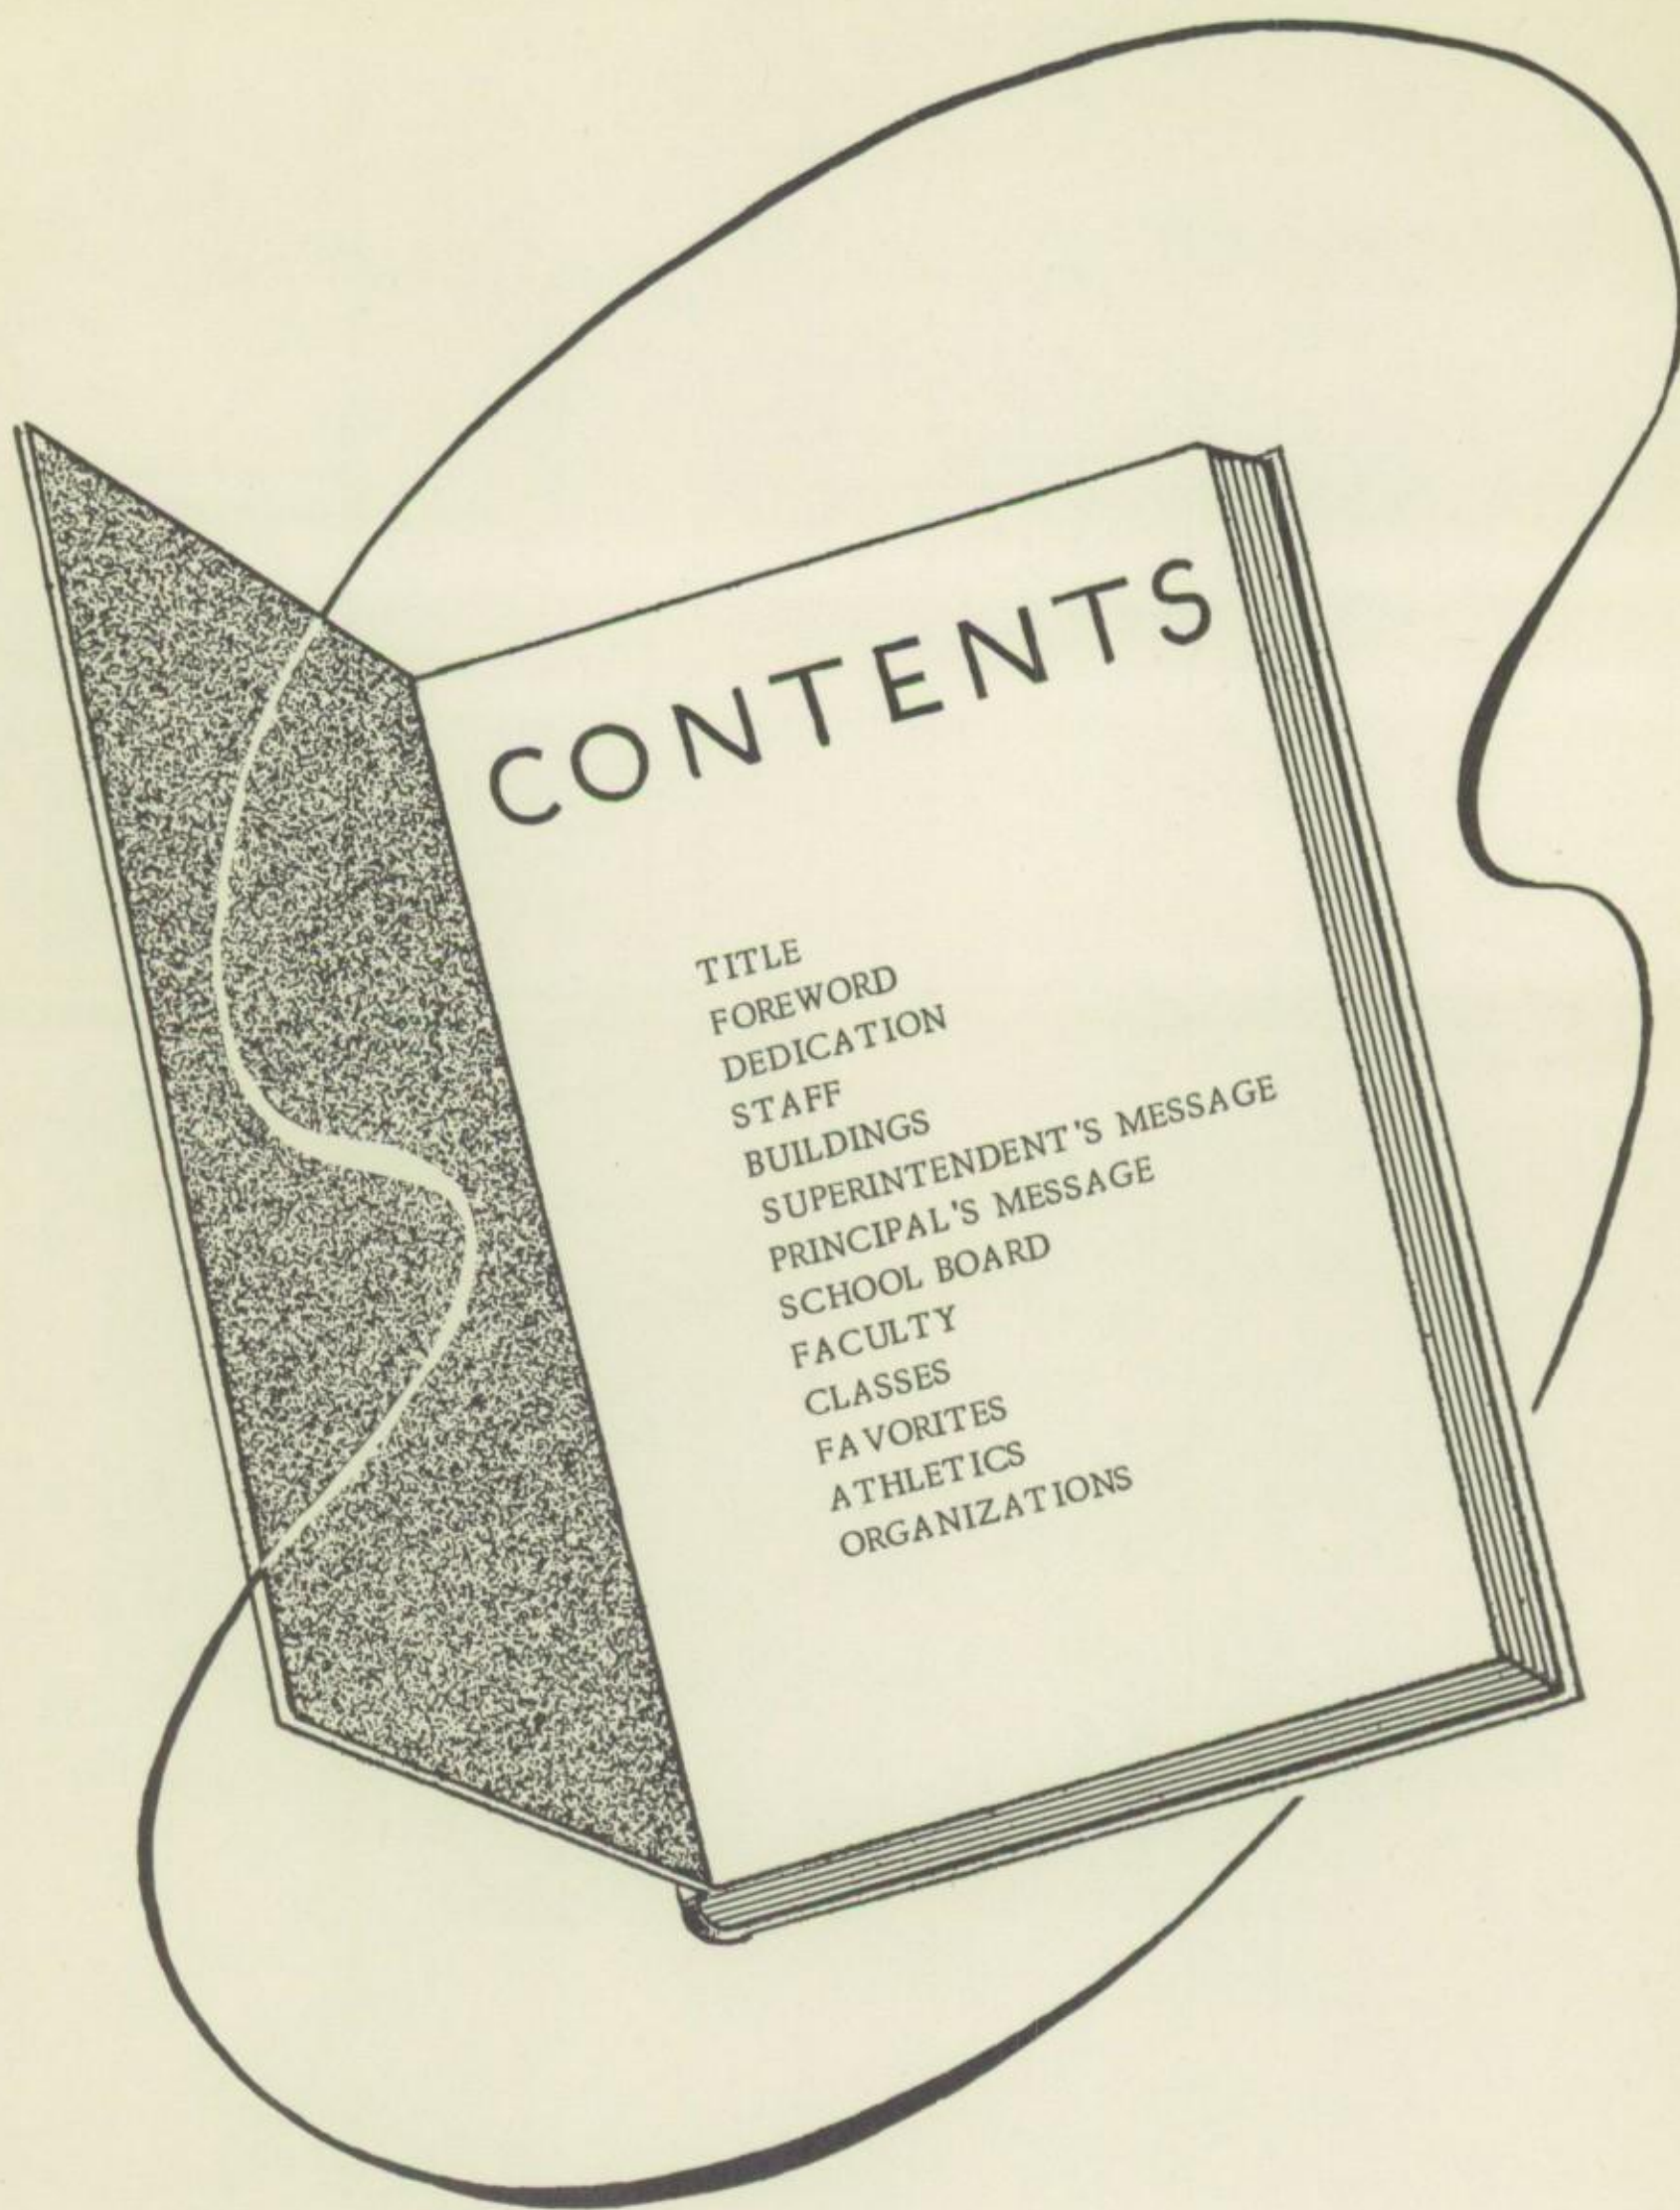

TODAY

Here hath been dawning another blue day:
Think, wilt thou let it slip useless away?
Out of Eternity this new day was born;
Into Eternity, at night, will return.
Behold it aforetime no eye ever did;
So soon it forever from all eyes is hid.
Here hath been dawning another blue day:
Think, wilt thou let it slip useless away?

Dedication

We, the annual staff of 1951-52 wish to dedicate our annual to Mr. McClure, who has kept us in high spirits with his winning smile and vital sense of humor.

In the future when we come upon problems we are unable to figure out we will remember Mr. McClure's ability to stick with a problem until he succeeds.

So it is with deep appreciation that we dedicate to you, Mr. McClure, our 1951-52 annual.

Superintendent's Message

Dear Students and Faculty:

Another yearbook comes to us seeking to portray our school life for another year; and it will remind you of many pleasant experiences. There will also be memories of some disappointments. These activities, of which you have a part, are steps in the educational process, for education consists of the experiences of life.

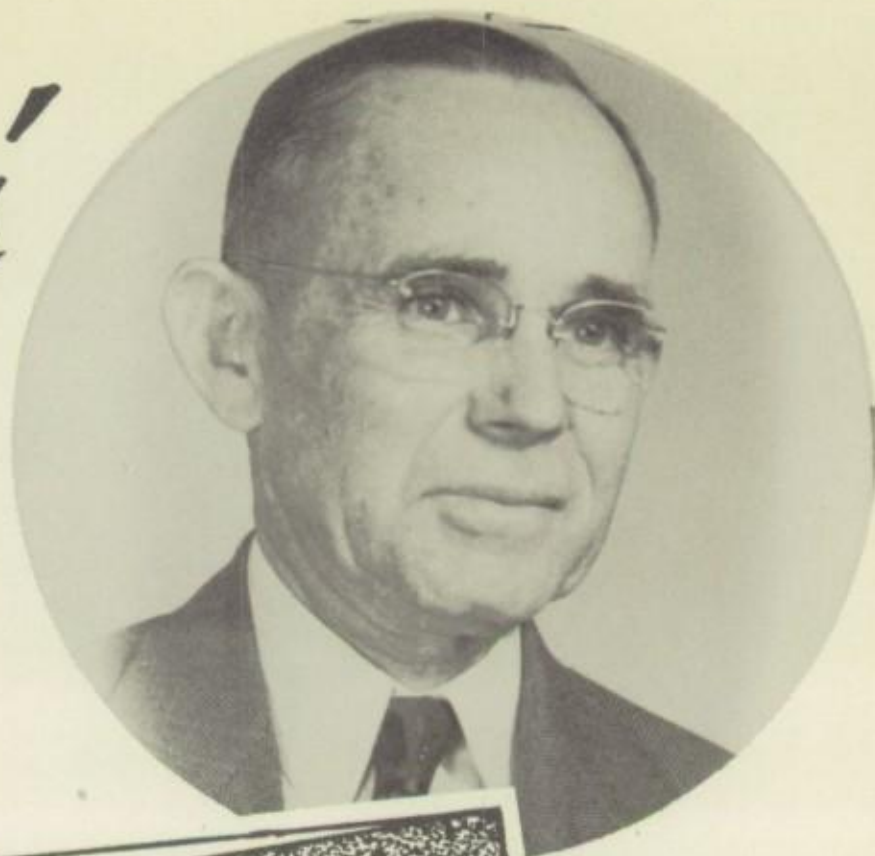

But the true progress we have made can not be pictured in this book, because the really important factors in educational growth are in realms of the spiritual and mental; were more important than the activity itself. In a greater measure you will reflect your growth and development much more accurately than this yearbook. If you have developed a keener sense of your responsibility to God and your fellow man and at the same time you have been developing loyalty, dependability, intelligence, generosity, strength of purpose, and nobility of conduct, you are making progress toward a fruitful and joyous life.

If you are not accomplishing the above aims of education, you are going to be handicapped even though you may have made grades equal to the best in your subject matter. Realizing the great responsibility that is ours, may we as teachers and students rededicate ourselves to the task of accomplishing these high aims in those who come to our school to learn to live joyously and fruitfully.

Sincerely your friend,

A. W. Phillips

Principal's Message

Students:

You are to be commended upon the completion of this another issue of the "Wild Cat." As you grow into adults and leave this school for other fields of endeavor, it is my wish that your copy of the annual will always bring to memory the many happy experiences that we have had together in old M.H.S.

Today we are faced with many grave problems which threaten the very existence of our beloved democratic ideals of life. However, we do not face these dangers without hope. Our hope of a bright future lies in a dependence on our youth. I challenge each of you, in the name of everything dear to our society, to shoulder your responsibility as a young American patriot, and fight for the rights and privileges that were endowed to us by the blood, sweat, and tears of our forefathers.

Sincerely,

J. R. Smith

Senior Class Will

Put you pipe down Pa, and Ma, put away your knitting. Now Junior, you and Sisie must stop fighting long enough to hear what has been left to you by the Seniors of 1952.

To Dale Tipps, better known as Ridge Mountain, we leave Betty Child's laugh.

To Charles Lunsford, who is popular with the girls, we leave Mildred Grubbs' shyness.

To Sue Farris and Henry Oliver, the dumbest students in the Senior Class to be, we leave Gene Gresham's ability to learn History.

To Mervil Bell, better known as Simplicity, we leave Norton Gatlin's outstanding place in the Senior Class.

To Leetie Hudgins, who tries to be teachers' pet, we leave Louise Lunsford's place as the humblest student in the Senior Class.

To Joe Myrl Johns and James Ottis Ritter, who could never carry a tune, we leave Jimmy Keeling's and Billy Alexander's harmonious voices.

To Edward Campbell, who works all the time, we leave Martha Moore's laziness.

To Marilyn Phillips, we leave Theda Rae Akin's enormous supply of boy friends.

To Don Brinkley, who never tells what he hears, we leave Winona Trawick's ability to keep a secret.

To Virginia Acrey, we leave Bonnie Jean Akin's ability to learn shorthand.

To Sue Penney and Conrad Barrett, we leave Dot Wilson's and Rayford Sprayberry's love affair.

To the darkest brunette member of the Junior Class (Lynne Owens) we leave Ann Mashburn's blonde hair and charm.

To Larry Shumate, who is unable to work Algebra II, we leave Wayne Cypher's ability to work it.

To Alice and Leah Lowery, who never giggle, we leave Ima Faye Nix's boisterous laugh.

To Betty Ann Bell, who has no interest in Basketball, we leave Bo Barrett's place as guard.

To Dalton Jones, better known as Ugly Mugly, we leave Joyce Barnes' glamour.

To Lorene Raines and Sue Penney, we leave Dortha Ramey's and Eugenia Smith's place as Mutt and Jeff.

To Margaret Faye Glasscock, who never lights negro chasers in the school building, we leave Gene Oliver Webb's ability to behave.

To Loyd Hunt we leave Patsy King's ability to talk like Donald Duck.

To Mrs. Roland Burrows we leave all our cheat sheets of English IV.

Senior Class Prophecy

I was looking through "The Defense, Defeat and Detail" the Mt. Enterprise paper, and I noticed the names of some of our classmates of M. H. S. and here is what has been happening to them in the last 28 years.

Rayford Sprayberry is an instructor in plain and fancy golf, making lots of money. He is also a teacher of auction, duplicate, and contract bridge.

Wayne Cyphers, member of Academy of Arts and Science, president of the Perfection Films Company, which turns out three hundred sixty-five ten-reel films each year. In his employ are the most shapely bathing girls and bravest heroes. One of his best films is "The Multiplication Tables," a problem play.

Mildred Grubbs, Dean of the Dormitory College for Girls for the past ten years and an educator of note. Author of "What Isn't Wrong With Education." Hobby: Failing to pass intelligence tests.

Louise Lunsford is now president of the Mt. Enterprise School Board, elected by the dependent party. The leader of the "Lonely Hearts Club" twenty years, Secretary of State one term. It has not been made public as yet.

Betty Childs is a leading dramatic soprano Metropolitan singer. Substantial, but not fat. Sings "Carmen tonight." You wouldn't expect her to count her works, and she doesn't, but she is evidently still careful with her calories.

From their experience with negro chasers, gained in high school, Gene Webb and Gene Gresham are now manufacturing Hydrogen bombs at their factory, the largest of its kind in the world.

Ima Faye Nix, premier danseuse of the Russian Dancers, the Chinese Ballet, and the Topeka Tap Dancers. Married and divorced three times. Noted for grace, beauty, and originality of dances. Introduced the popular grapevine glide and the thistledown float. Hobby: Prevention of corns.

As I passed Miss Theda Rae Akin's and Miss Joyce Barnes' home, the two old maids, I noticed a 1980 sedan parked in the front of the house. What's happening that we don't know about?

James Barrett, who finished high school in 1952 and immediately started to college, has today hung out his shingles, "James Barrett, Attorney at Law." I think we should congratulate James.

Billy Alexander, Jimmy Keeling, and Norton Gatlin have just completed their Drive-Inn Theater, located in Possum Alley. The first picture will be "Grapevine Bend" starring Sycamore Sally. No admission charged, all will be free, but you pay $1.00 per person at the gate. Since this is the first movie here they will charge the regular price. All movies after tonight will be $2.00.

Miss Ann Mashburn and Patsy King have just returned from Korea where they have been army nurses for the last 25 years.

Mrs. Bob Snoozes, former Martha Moore, has just rounded up her 1,000 head of cattle to carry to the market at Mt. Enterprise. Mr. Snoozes is not lazy, he just don't work.

Miss Winona Trawick is the secretary of Jean Akin, the County Judge, has just returned from a month's vacation at Miami Beach. The women are ruling the world.

Miss Dorthea Ramey and Eugenia Smith have just played as Mutt and Jeff in "From Enter to Prise." They wish to thank their director, Miss Dot Wilson, for her splendid management, who is in the hospital recovering from the strain of so much work.

Dear Corine,

I have truly enjoyed knowing you and being in school with you. I'm wishing for you a lot of luck + happiness, but if a problem should come up
I hope you can face it bravely and I know you will. as ever.
